Holocaust Legacy Partners Project

Letter of Agreement

I, _____, on this day of _____ pledge to represent the memory and legacy of Holocaust survivor, _____, to my generation and the next no less than twice each year.

I hereby promise to make every effort to speak with groups and individuals, whenever the opportunity arises, to ensure that the personal history of _____ and the Holocaust live on in perpetuity. I have been entrusted with this sacred responsibility by _____ who has empowered me to speak on their behalf.

By my commitment to the legacy project, the Holocaust will never become just another page in a text book.

In accordance with this agreement, I will fulfill the following obligations:

I will meet with _____.

I will be entrusted by _____ to speak on his behalf.

I will preview audio-visual material on _____ and will see or be given relevant artifacts.

I will thoroughly research this history to better understand _____'s experience and to prepare me to answer questions.

I will receive _____'s approval that my knowledge of her/his experience is accurate, complete, and honest.

Furthermore, I understand that the DVD containing the longer, detailed testimony is being loaned exclusively to me for a period of three months after which time I will return it to The Holocaust Center, Boston North or to its representative. The sole purpose of this long testimony is for my education and cannot be reproduced or used for monetary gain. The shorter DVD of my survivor's testimony is mine to be used in presentations and can be passed on to other Holocaust Legacy Partners in the future.
